

STATINTL

—Associated Press Wirephoto

LEST YOU FORGET, said U2 Pilot Francis Gary Powers when he sent this fur-hatted photo of himself from a Russian prison camp. In his letter he told his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Powers of Pound, Va., that he has not been receiving mail from home and did not want them to forget what he looks like.

Associated Press

Powers Sends Photo

This photo of U.S. pilot Francis Powers of Pound, Va., the first received in this country since he was sentenced in Moscow, was made available to the Roanoke Times by his father, Oliver, who has just received it.

A-2

THE EVENING STAR
Washington, D. C., Thursday, December 8, 1960POWERS PRISON PHOTO

Imprisoned U-2 Pilot Francis Gary Powers sent his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Powers of Pound, Va., this photo of himself, first taken since his Moscow trial when he was sentenced to 10 years for spy flights over Russia. He said he sent it so they won't forget how he looks.—AP Wirephoto.